

USTA Videotaping Matches Policy

There is no USTA rule prohibiting taking videos or photos of USTA junior matches. It is possible that individual facilities (public or private) may have policies regarding videos or photos, so you should check with the facility management before taking photos or video on their premises. And, in the case of juniors, USTA Southern recommends that you obtain permission from the parents of the other child prior to videotaping a match.

