

WHAT IS NORTH CAROLINA TENNIS DOING NOW FOR HIGH SCHOOL TENNIS?

The NC Tennis Association does.....

1. The NCTA offers the opportunity to a HS varsity letter winner to count their HS participation towards one sanctioned tournament requirement. (For details, please read our Jr Regs)
2. Partnered with UNCG for many years for the NCHSAA Coaches Clinic here in Greensboro each July.
3. Offer all HS players playing their first USTA Novice tournament a voucher for reimbursement of the entry fee.

The NC Tennis Foundation does.....

1. The NC Tennis Foundation has contributed $$$ to the NCHSAA to help defray costs with the HS State tournaments.
2. The NC Tennis Foundation is offering a free subscription to www.highschooltenniscoach.com to help plan practice and further their knowledge of tennis.
3. Several years ago the NC Tennis Foundation and the Association met with a HS Coach advisory group (put together by the NCHSAA) to formulate a plan for statewide and regionalized coaching clinics for HS coaches and to begin what is now the NC HS Tennis Coaches Association.
4. The NC Tennis Foundation's Emily H. Preyer Family Endowment Fund offers college scholarships, camp scholarships and junior development grants to NC juniors.
5. The NC Tennis Foundation supplements licenses to MyTennisNetwork.com's High School site.

SOUTHERN NORTH CAROLINA